REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2009-2010 school year was once again successful at Blacksburg High School. Our students and teachers performed well in all areas of school life. We have experienced significant achievements throughout the school year. Academically, our students continue to score above the state average on the South Carolina Exit Exam, and preliminary results indicate an increase in our overall scores on both the SAT and ACT. Artistically, our programs continue to grow and produce outstanding results. Our piano lab, hand bell choir, and chorus continue to expand, and we have added drama to our curriculum. Our band program has a reputation of excellence and continues to be very competitive in both state and invitational contests. Athletically, several of our teams advanced into the state playoffs, with a number of student athletes earning all-region honors.

We have just completed the seventh year of our academy program. Despite budgetary considerations that have altered our program, there is substantial evidence that it is still paying academic dividends for our students. We also have increased our dual credit offerings enabling an increased number of our students to attain college credit before their high school graduation. We provide in-house credit recovery through a mastery-based computer program that has proven to be a great success. This program is specifically designed for students who have initially struggled academically and have previously demonstrated a great propensity to become a drop-out statistic before this program was implemented. Because of this program and the diligence of our teachers and staff at Blacksburg High School, our graduation rate has significantly improved to the point that we are in the top ten percent of the schools in South Carolina in terms of graduating seniors.

Many of our students submitted entries to various district, state, and regional contests. A significant percentage of them won awards and commendations due to their outstanding efforts. Our students also participated in events such as blood drives, fundraisers for cancer research, recycling projects, CPR training classes, and other projects to improve our school and community. We were also very proud to be recognized as a Palmetto Silver Award Winning school for closing the achievement gap. Our report card absolute rating in 2009 was good, and we were rated in the top 20% of "schools like ours," based on demographical comparative data compiled by the state department of education.

Our challenge remains to build on these achievements. We will do so by continuing to improve our educational programs, providing better services to our students and continuing to upgrade our facilities. Our school staff and community are determined to make Blacksburg High School an even better school, one that will continue to provide ample opportunities for all students and teachers to excel.
